Library Databases & Resources

Academic Search Premier: A multi-disciplinary database containing more than 4,600 full text journals. This database offers information in nearly every area of academic study including: nursing, medical sciences, ethics, chemistry, arts & literature, and more.

One Search: Allows you to search all the library's databases in one simple interface. Use this for fast, simple searches, not in-depth literature reviews.

PubMed: Comprises over 28 million citations and abstracts in the fields of medicine, nursing, dentistry, healthcare systems and preclinical sciences.

CINAHL COMPLETE: Provides nursing and allied health-centered resources with full-text access to top journals, evidence-based care sheets, and more.

JAMA (1883-present): Full-text access to JAMA and nine specialty JAMA journals

OVID - NURSING: Nursing@OVID is designed specifically to meet the information needs of nurses and allied health professionals. The focus is on nursing journals, ANA/NLN publications, and primary allied health journals. Contains primarily English titles with selected abstracts. Covers 1982 to the present.

OVID - MEDLINE: The National Library of Medicine’s premier source for biomedical literature including research, clinical practice, administration, policy issues and healthcare services. Covers 1950 to the present.

ClinicalKey for Nursing: An online resource designed to answer clinical questions and stay up-to-date with the latest nursing information. Includes full-text nursing reference books and journals, practice guidelines, journal search, patient education, drug updates, and current nursing news.
